Marketing Agencies

Marketing agencies are great at big picture strategies, but when it comes to delivering high-quality legal leads, they fall short. They often lack the focus and expertise you need to grow your practice.

- ✗ No focus on leads
- ✗ Expensive retainers
- ✗ Slow results
- ✗ Limited capacity
- ✗ Compliance risks

Lead Gen Companies

Other lead generation companies often prioritise quantity over quality. With unvetted leads and poor ROI, they leave you spending more time chasing cold leads than securing new clients.

- ✗ Low-quality leads
- ✗ Inconsistent timing
- ✗ Unpredictable costs
- ✗ Limited scalability
- ✗ May compete with your firm

Going In-House

Building an in-house team may seem like a good idea, but it's costly, time-intensive, and risky without the right expertise or resources. Why reinvent the wheel when we've already perfected it?

- ✗ Steep learning curve
- ✗ Resource-heavy
- ✗ Limited capacity
- ✗ Risky campaigns
- ✗ Ongoing effort
